POWERED BY THE BELIEF THAT POSITIVE ACTION CAN TAKE YOU ANYWHERE YOU WANT TO GO...

These inspirational talks by David Duker, aka The History Coach, offer your students the chance to tap into the wisdom of some incredible role models from the past.

Only ever promoting humanity and never war, these fact-filled and diverse sessions share the stories of five individuals who lived through World War II and learnt so much about getting through the toughest of times.

Our fully qualified team of coaches will guide your students through the key factors that enabled these inspiring people from history to rise to the many challenges that confronted them during those turbulent years.

We use storytelling as a way of opening the discussion around such subjects as vision, celebrating your own strengths, resilience, confidence and empathy.

In a complex world that's evolving at a lightning pace we feel that these positive examples can inspire a generation who have grown up in the shadow of a pandemic to connect with their own inner strength, believe in themselves and in a life full of possibility.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT ON THE DAY...

We start a memorable day with an assembly designed to make a big impact. Combining history and coaching to great effect, we share timeless examples of human achievement.

This is followed up by the 'Tally Ho Meet Up' where your students get the chance to join us and explore these values a little deeper. This is a relaxed 'open door' session ideally hosted during lunch where we create a safe space to talk about all things history and coaching.

Taking positive action is at the heart of everything we do and this is reflected in the coaching resources on offer that will benefit your students. The 'Onwards and Upwards' talks are designed to encourage the youngsters to take their next positive, achievable step.

We want to connect students with history and use it as a tool to change the way they think about themselves.

At a stage in their lives when your students are experiencing relentless change and personal discovery, our historical role models provide real guidance and a positive influence during what can be an otherwise uncertain time.

REDEFINING REMEMBRANCE

We're in the privileged position of being the bridge between two generations and our only goal is to keep their epic example alive for years to come by working with and inspiring children to rise to their own challenges."

David Duker, our founder, has been in the incredible position over the last two decades to have sat and chatted with many of the epic folk who lived through and overcame the enormous challenges they faced during The Second World War. He has heard first hand how the values that they stood for empowered them to rise to one of the greatest challenges that humanity has ever faced.

Time and again he has learned how ordinary people like you and I were asked to step out of their comfort zones and achieve something extraordinary.

The question David asked himself back then in 2010, and still asks now, is quite simply this: 'How did they do it?' His quest to understand 'how' has led to the project you see today.
